Privacy Notice

The Redstone Technical Test Center (RTTC) does not collect personal information about you when you visit this Web site, unless otherwise stated on a Web page or unless you choose to provide this information to us. However, we collect and store certain non-personal information automatically, as described below.

1. The Internet Protocol (IP) address of the domain from which you access the Internet (i.e. 754.391.937.019) whether yours individually or provided as a proxy by your Internet Service Provider (ISP)
2. The date and time you access our site
3. The pages you peruse (recorded by the text and graphics files that compose that page)
4. The Internet address of the Web site from which you linked directly to our site.

RTTC uses these summary statistics to help make our site more useful to visitors. For example, we assess what information is of most and least interest to visitors and we identify system performance and problem areas for improvement and resolution respectively. This information is not shared with anyone beyond the support staff to this Web site and is only used as a source of anonymous statistical information. This information, however, would be provided to Law Enforcement when required by an ongoing criminal investigation.
